

Professional Summary — Product design leader with 15+ years across product design, design leadership, and front-end development. Built and led design teams as Design Director (Twenty Ideas) and now drive product, AI, and design-system strategy as Staff Product Designer at LivePlan. Measurable outcomes — -25% churn, +42% engagement, WCAG 2.1 AA — turning complex software into products people can actually use.

PALO ALTO SOFTWARE • MARCH 2021 – PRESENT

Staff Product Designer, LivePlan

- Led a ground-up redesign of LivePlan's decade-old business plan editor, cutting early churn 25% and lifting collaborative plan comments 63%.
- Led design for LivePlan's 2025 forecasting platform overhaul, shipping Actuals + Forecast (projections side-by-side with real bookkeeping data across Revenue, Direct Costs, Personnel, and Expenses), a reimagined Forecast editor, and Forecast Groups (parent/sub-entry hierarchies for complex P&L roll-ups).
- Designed and shipped Idea Canvas, an AI idea-validation tool, from concept to MVP in 3 weeks — 93% completion, and 70% of users acted on an AI pivot suggestion.
- Built LivePlan's token-based design system in Figma and code, including a theming engine that shipped a dozen themes at launch and now powers the pitch-deck feature.
- Championed LivePlan's AI strategy across writing, plan review, and financial forecasting — embedding business-specific assistance at the point of need (writing engagement +42%, AI adoption +38%).
- Reframed research culture from "what we think users want" to "what customers actually do," pairing interviews with behavioral data to shape a two-year product roadmap.
